Dear Future Fifth Graders,

As we start off the new school year, we ask you to bring in memorabilia on the first day of school that will remind you of people, places, events, and things that mean a lot to you. These small objects should be something that represents what is important to you and “close to your heart”. We will be using these items to decorate our writer’s notebook to jump-start our new writing curriculum. Be creative when choosing what you bring in.

*Some ideas: a button that brings back a memory about your first spring concert or a gum wrapper that reminds you of when you got it stuck to your new braces. Perhaps a magazine cut-out of your favorite play/movie/actor, or a picture of you and a friend/family member that mean a lot to you.

Storyworks!!

Dear Fifth Grade Parents,

This year we will be exposing our students to a multitude of nonfiction and fiction texts in our English Language Arts curriculum. To coincide with our units of study, and to prepare for statewide assessments, we would like to subscribe to Scholastic Storyworks, a bimonthly magazine that touches on critical thinking and reading comprehension skills, which are essential at the fifth grade level. The cost of this magazine is $12.00 and is a one-time fee. The magazine will be used in school as well as for homework assignments. Please send in your payment in cash. Thank you for your support!

Sincerely,
Fifth Grade Teachers
