“Where Sharing is Caring”

Karen Scott-Piazza, Principal

October 25th, 2018

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Happy fall! This November, students at PS 205 will once again be engaged in Student Led Parent Conferences (SLPC).

The SLPC is a progressive structure that has replaced our traditional parent teacher conferences. The school community is excited to continue this venture because SLPC puts your child at the helm of the learning process, holding them responsible and accountable as they present their work to you. To this end, students are being asked to be reflective in their learning experiences and to be more active participants in their day to day education.

Student led conferences will take place for all of our students and their parents in grades K-5. Our goal is to build student ownership and accountability by empowering students to articulate their learning and foster great family-school partnerships.

After the SLPC, parents and students will have an opportunity to meet with the teacher. At the conclusion of the conference you and your child will complete a short survey and help set goals for future learning in the classroom.

Please look at the dates of the SLPC below and indicate your preference for your appointment. Be aware that if you have more than one conference to attend, Tuesday afternoon will not allow you time to visit with the cluster teachers (PE, science, computer science). In the event that you would like to have an additional meeting with your child's classroom or cluster teacher, please know that Tuesday parent engagement time is available throughout the school year from 2:45-3:20. Please call ahead to make an appointment with the teacher.

Kindly list the names and classes of siblings so that we can help coordinate appointments.

Sincerely,

Karen Scott-Piazza
Principal
